

Dermajet Pro

Dermajet Pro uses Endomassage® Ultrasonic therapy that works the vacuum technique simultaneously to the application of ultrasonic energy in order to reach the hypodermis level, while performing a massage from the inside to the outside.

The Endomassage releases all the vessels below the tissue that is being treated. It also increases the lymph blood flow, which contributes to a draining effect and an important increase of nutrients.

The ultrasonic energy emitted at the same time as the vacuum results in faster, deeper and traumatic results.

BENEFITS

Endomassage® and ultrasounds are a perfect combination for the treatment of localised fat and for tissue firming results.
